Title: Piggy's Restaurant Moving

Date: Week of March 13th, 2005

Info: Piggy's Restaurant in La Crosse continues to prepare for its move down the road. Owners will move the restaurant in late March. And they plan on mixing some of the old, with the new. The entire bar will be moved out of the current restaurant, into the new one. Movers will have to take apart the bar piece by piece, in order for it to make the move. Piggy's chef and owner Chris Roderique says it will be the same old Piggy's, with just a few new touches. Piggy's will open at its new location in late April.

Title: Diesel or Hybrid

Date: Week of March 22nd, 2005

Info: With gas prices at an all-time high, many people are looking for ways to get the most for their buck. Experts say there's some simple things to do. First, make sure your tire pressure is at the recommended mileage. And if you're looking at making a long-term commitment to cheaper fuel prices, dealers say to check out a hybrid or a diesel. Most diesel engines boast at least a 10 mile per gallon increase over their unleaded counterparts. Hybrid engines can get more than 60 miles per gallon.

Title: Tommy Thompson Becomes LHI President

Date: Week of March 9th, 2005

Info: Former Wisconsin governor Tommy Thompson is now the president of Logistics Health, Inc. in La Crosse. LHI CEO Don Weber said Thompson's appointment will lead to growth through for the company, which means more good paying jobs will come to La Crosse in the future. Thompson's duties include developing contact across the country and working with senior management. He won't be in La Crosse often. He'll be in La Crosse about six days a month. He's also joining an accounting firm and law firm in Washington. He'll spend about 70 percent of his time between those two firms.

Title: Kwik Trip Milk Industry

Date: Week of March 28th, 2005

Info: Less than 24 hours from the cow to the cooler – that's how long it takes Kwik Trip to get milk from the cow to the cooler. US Congressman Gil Gutknecht learned that and many other facts on his tour of Kwik Trip dairy facilities here in La Crosse. Being the chairman of the dairy subcommittee, Gutknecht wanted to learn the ins and outs of the dairy industry. He chose Kwik Trip because it processes and sells more fluid milk than any other company in the upper Midwest. In fact, the facility moves 600,000 pounds of milk each day. Across the country, milk sales are down about 5%. But at Kwik Trip they're up 7%.

FCC 2: GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

Title: UW-L Tuition Rally

Date: Week of February 9th, 2005

Info: Students at UW-L are unhappy with the governor's proposed budget. The plan would allow the Board of Regents to increase tuition by 7% each of the next two years. Right now, UW-L students pay around $2400 dollars in tuition for one semester. Under the governor's proposal, that number would go up more than $100 next year, and an additional $200 the following year. Students do like some parts of the governor's budget. For example, the plan also calls for a $23 million dollars increase in financial aid. It also includes an additional $5 million dollars to keep "star faculty" within the system.

Title: North-South Corridor Debate

Date: Week of January 21st, 2005

Info: Seven years ago, La Crosse voters defeated a north-south corridor proposal. Opponents were against destroying the marshland and surrounding neighborhoods. Now, supporters are hoping to find a plan that will prove more popular. A newly proposed plan would build a new road running diagonally across town. The La Crosse Area Planning Committee says this would make for a quicker commute through town and would accommodate La Crosse's growing population. But while some would like a faster drive through town, many say the environmental damage of building a road through the marsh, and the destruction of neighborhoods is not worth it.

Title: Paul Bucher for AG

Date: Week of January 26th, 2005

Info: Waukesha County District Attorney Paul Bucher is getting an early start on his campaign for Attorney General. Republicans see incumbent Democrat Peg Lautenschlager as vulnerable, after her arrest on drunk driving charges and allegations she used state-owned cars for personal business. Bucher becomes the first Republican to enter the race, and there will likely be two more. He made his announcement at the La Crosse County Courthouse. He is a Republican serving his tenth term as District Attorney in Waukesha County. Bucher says Wisconsin needs a more accountable and responsible Attorney General. The general election is in November of 2006.

Title: Mayor John Medinger

Date: Week of February 17th, 2005

Info: Mayor John Medinger believes no matter the outcome of this year's mayoral race in La Crosse, residents can expect a change in philosophy at city hall. The two candidates for mayor are quite different than mayor John Medinger. Candidate Mark Johnsrud is the president of the City Council, and he and the mayor have had their disagreements. And candidate Deak Swanson is a local developer and former business owner who has had conflicts with the mayor as well. Medinger does not expect to endorse either candidate.

FCC 3: ENVIRONMENT

Title: Hokah Ice Jam

Date: Week of February 7th, 2005

Info: Flood waters in Hokah, Minnesota have begun to recede, but not before doing some damage. An ice jam, melting snow, and rain tested the new levee in Hokah. It was the levee's first real test, and it failed. Water from the Root River shut down Highways 16 and 44 for about fourteen hours Sunday. The water has receded, but the current levels are still above flood stage. And the biggest factor in the flooding, is an ice jam on the river. Water from the Root River also flooded the sewer treatment plant in Hokah. The plant had to shut down and a small amount of raw sewage did get into the river.

Title: Cat Hunting

Date: Week of March 1st, 2005

Info: A Wisconsin man is grabbing national headlines for his proposal, that would allow hunters to shoot wild or feral cats. But many cat lovers do not agree with that solution. The Coulee Region Humane Society says they're getting calls from people, who are disturbed and saddened by the proposal. Mark Smith, the hunter at the center of this proposal, sees it as a way of stopping cats from killing wild birds. News 19 did try to contact Smith, but he was not at home. His family did not want to comment on the proposal. But officials at the Department of Natural Resources say the intent of the proposal is good. Hunter will vote on the proposal during hearings for the Wisconsin Conservation Congress.

Title: Tire Burning Plant

Date: Week of March 9th, 2005

Info: Public opposition may have helped defeat a proposed tire-burning plant in Preston, Minnesota. Heartland Energy owner Bob Maust has withdrawn his request to build the plant in Preston. He says he plant would have burned old tires to create electricity. But citizens fought the proposal. They argued the plant would send toxic materials into the environment. They succeeded in persuading the citizens panel of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency to order more environmental testing before the plant could be built. After that ruling, Maust decided to drop the proposal. The industrial site in Preston will now be put up for sale.

Title: Pollution Alert

Date: Week of January 31st, 2005

Info: An unusual air pollution alert is out for most of the viewing area. There are higher levels of soot in the air, being held in place by a stagnant air mass over the Midwest. That means people with heart or lung disease, adults over 50, and young children should take it easy and watch for respiratory symptoms like coughing and wheezing. La Crosse, Vernon, Crawford counties are affected in Wisconsin.

Environment PSA's/Events

FCC 4: EDUCATION

Title: UW-L Tuition Rally

Date: Week of February 9th, 2005

Info: Students at UW-L are unhappy with the governor's proposed budget. The plan would allow the Board of Regents to increase tuition by 7% each of the next two years. Right now, UW-L students pay around $2400 dollars in tuition for one semester. Under the governor's proposal, that number would go up more than $100 next year, and an additional $200 the following year. Students do like some parts of the governor's budget. For example, the plan also calls for a $23 million dollars increase in financial aid. It also includes an additional $5 million dollars to keep "star faculty" within the system.

Title: G-E-T Referendum

Date: Week of March 31st, 2005

Info: Voters in the G-E-T school district will make a decision, on a $23 million dollar referendum. If it passes, it would mean an extra $348 dollars would be added to the property tax bill for a $100,000 home. The money would go to building a brand new high school, and then turning the current high school into the middle school. G-E-T's principal says they're running out of space in the current high school. Many teachers do not have any storage space for their supplies, and there isn't enough room in the cafeteria. Both the current high school and middle school have been around for a while. The high school was built in 1953. The middle school was built in 1925. There's also a second referendum on the ballot. It's a $500,000 operating referendum on the ballot.

Title: Open Enrollment

Date: Week of February 8th, 2005

Info: More parents than ever are choosing to send their children to public schools outside of their home district. They're able to do so because of the state's open enrollment program. This school year alone, 125 students transferred to the La Crosse School District from spots like Holmen and Onalaska. 48 students left the district, but that still leaves La Crosse ahead by almost 80 kids. School officials say some parents make the change solely for educational purposes. Others, for practical purposes. But the reason for the switch doesn't matter.

Title: Chinese Exchange Teachers

Date: Week of March 22nd, 2005

Info: Teacher exchange programs are giving local students a unique learning experience. This year La Crosse has two teachers from its sister city of Luoyang, China. They're spending one year teaching in the school district. They took some time to visit Western Wisconsin Technical College. They met with teachers at WWTC, comparing the American educational system to China's. Zherui Wei says she's found that American kids are quick learners and very smart. But their study habits differ a lot from Japanese children. Wei taught in China for eight years before coming to La Crosse as an exchange teacher.

FCC 5: PUBLIC HEALTH

Title: Newborn Screenings

Date: Week of February 22nd, 2005

Info: Every day, newborns around the country are tested for rare, but deadly diseases. But what the doctor tests for depends largely on which state the baby is born. Some states test newborns for just four disorders. In Wisconsin, doctors test for 26. Dr. Dennis Costakos, a doctor at Franciscan Skemp Healthcare, is also a member of the state's newborn screening committee. He says the state follows certain principals in deciding what they test for. One of the guidelines states the disorder must be one that a doctor would not think to test for right away. And secondly, it should be a disorder that left untreated, would be devastating. At Franciscan Skemp, the tests cost less than $30.

Title: Heart Disease Test

Date: Week of March 15th, 2005

Info: Heart disease is the leading cause of death among American women. But there's some promising news. A new simple test could be used to predict female heart disease. Doctors have used white blood cell tests for years, but not to predict heart disease. But a new medical study finds that women with the highest levels of white blood cells are twice as likely to die from the heart disease as women with the lowest levels. The test is simple and only costs about $25. But local doctors say the jury's still out because the evidence is too new. They say it's best be aware of the risk factors for heart disease.

Title: Alcohol Task Force

Date: Week of March 10th, 2005

Info: The La Crosse City Council has voted to accept the recommendations of the Alcohol Task Force. The 15 member task force had presented 20 recommendations to help curb binge drinking in La Crosse. Members of the community filled the chamber to both support and question the recommendations. After a brief discussion, the council voted unanimously to accept the recommendations in concept. That means they will now move forward on each recommendations.

Title: Minnesota Nursing Homes

Date: Week of March 24th, 2005

Info: 100 Minnesota nursing homes are at risk of closing their doors for good. Officials estimate one in four nursing homes could have to close their doors, if they don't receive more financial help from the government. Nursing homes have not been able to raise their rates for three years, and state and federal cuts are making their budgets tight. In addition, more seniors are now choosing assisted living apartments, which is decreasing the nursing home population. In La Crescent Health Care Center, it costs $130 a day per Official there say the Health Care Center is not in danger of being closed.

FCC 6: RECREATION

Title: Ice Fishing

Date: Week of February 13th, 2005

Info: A Holmen Middle School physical education teacher is teaching his students with disabilities that they can do any activity, and be successful at it. Steve Eggerichs took his students to Round Lake in Trempealeau to teach them how to ice fish. It's part of Holmen's adaptive PE class, and teaches disabled children how to be active in a non-competitive way. The students spent two weeks learning about ice fishing and even went shopping for their equipment. Eggerichs says he wants his students to feel special and know they can do things their non-disabled peers can do. While on the field trip, the group caught a 30 inch long Northern.

Title: Winter RecFest Ice Fishing Derby

Date: Week of January 29th, 2005

Info: Winter weather made for a very successful Winter Rec-Fest in La Crosse. One of the premier events was ice fishing. About 150 anglers, young and old, dropped their lines in the frozen waters at Pettibone Park for the annual Fishing Derby. Organizers say it's a family friendly event, for the pros and newcomers as well. The Ice Fishing Derby is sponsored by Bass Masters and Gander Mountain.

Title: Boat Show

Date: Week of February 11th, 2005

Info: People got a chance to feed their cabin fever at the 28th annual Boat, Sport, and Travel Show at the La Crosse Center. Campters, motorhomes, boats, and travel destination ideas were all part of this year's show. Kids even got a chance to try their luck at catching a trout. People also got a chance to check out birds they don't normally get to see up close. Eight birds were on display from the World Bird Sanctuary in St. Louis.

School officials say some parents make the change solely for educational purposes. Others, for practical purposes. But the reason for the switch doesn't matter.

Title: Milk Education

Date: Week of March 8th, 2005

Info: Some eighth grade students at Longfellow Middle School got the chance to ditch class, in order to teach other students about the importance of drinking milk. The students are trying to promote the health benefits of a milk rich diet. Besides creating contests, flyers, and a milk moustache competition with their teachers, several kids donned milk cartons during lunch. The students say they're drinking more milk in all three flavors- white, chocolate and strawberry. The school's nutrition manager says she does not care what flavor they drink, as long as they drink it.

Title: Bus Drivers

Date: Week of February 22nd, 2005

Info: Bus drivers have a big job. Not only do they have to keep their eyes on the road, but on as many as 70 children at one time. News 19 caught up with one local bus driver. Don Parker has been a bus driver for 15 years. Before that he was semi driver, so he's used to being behind the wheel of a big rig. The 53-year-old says each day is an adventure, both on and off the road. But Don says he finds a way to make each day enjoyable. You can make a bus driver's job easier, by following the rules of the road. When a school bus has its red flashing lights on and its stop sign extended, you night to stop.

PRIMETIME LIVE

Thursday, January 6, 2005

A SEPARATE HOPE

Primetime Live's Charles Gibson tells the dramatic story of how Kevin and Melissa Buckles made their difficult choice, and cameras chronicle the heroic efforts of doctors from Washington, DC's Children's National Medical Center to separate their conjoined twins, four-month-old Jade and Erin.

Thursday, January 13, 2005

MICHAEL JACKSON'S CASE

ABC News' Primetime Live has reviewed more than 1,900 pages of grand jury testimony from the Michael Jackson child molestation case. For the first time, what the accuser told the grand jury had happened – in his own words – will be reported in an exclusive story by "Primetime Live" co-anchor Cynthia McFadden.

Thursday, January 27, 2005

RELIGIOUS CULT

A murder-suicide brings a notorious religious cult, Children of God, back into the spotlight. The group shrank from the spotlight due to growing scrutiny about its alleged sexual practices and the use of sex to recruit new members. Former members tell Jay Schadler that they don't believe the cult has ever really paid its debt to the children who were abused.

Thursday, February 3, 2005

TERI HATCHER

On this week's "Primetime Live," Diane Sawyer interviews "Desperate Housewife" Teri Hatcher, who has made the ultimate Hollywood comeback. Hatcher talks about love, unemployment and making it back to the top of the Hollywood Heap.

BOGUS BOTOX

Chris Cuomo reports that the huge demand for Botox has led to an illicit underground industry that has alarmed the medical community and caused law enforcement officials to take bold action. Big profits are being made by producing and injecting patients with potentially life-threatening "bootleg" Botox.

TEETH WHITENERS

Millions of Americans are turning to over-the-counter teeth whitening products in pursuit of a bright smile. John Quiñones reports that some "bleach junkies" who overuse these products may develop unexpected problems.

Thursday, February 10, 2005

JOHN OF GOD

Primetime Live" co-anchor John Quiñones travels to Brazil and comes face-to-face with "John of God," who claims that, through him, God heals believers through "visible" surgeries, using some startling and unorthodox techniques.

Thursday, March 3, 2005

DESPERATE SEARCH

The story of the desperate struggle to find a young couple, high on crystal meth, as they wander lost in a blinding snowstorm.

VICTIMS

An eye-opening "Primetime Live" test reveals how vulnerable teenaged girls can be to predators.

FIRST BIRTHDAY

Thursday, March 10, 2005

AGAINST ALL ODDS

Primetime speaks with Jeannette Walls, Temple Grandin and Ronan Tynan who not only overcame incredible personal odds, but have gone on to lead what can only be described as remarkable and inspiring lives.

Thursday, March 17, 2005

WILLING VICTIMS

Safety expert Bob Stuber (left) says parents may not be aware how easily predators can prey on even their older children – like teenagers. Most people think they and their loved ones would know what to do if they were ever confronted by a potential abductor. But Bob showed "Primetime Live" that may not always be the case.

UNREMERSEFUL KILLER

Gary Hirte was an Eagle Scout and honors student. He also killed a 37-year-old substitute teacher and was sentenced to at least 32 years in prison. But Hirte says he should be free.

Thursday, March 24, 2005

PRISON WALLS

Diane Sawyer spends two days and nights inside a maximum security women's prison and uncovers a self-contained world with a culture of its own.

Thursday, March 31, 2005

RACISM

A man visits a party at the invitation of an acquaintance and is nearly beaten to death. His attackers are alleged to be police officers motivated by racism.

20/20

Friday, January 7, 2005

OLYMPIC-STYLE MAKEOVER

Two overweight families face the challenge of a lifetime. With the help of Olympic gold medalist Paul Hamm and his twin brother and silver medalist Morgan, two families with real-life problems are facing real-life makeovers. The families have been warned that their health, even their lives, could be in danger if they don't lose weight and get in shape. So they're getting an Olympic-style new diet, new lifestyle and new exercise regime that could change their lives forever.

Friday, January 14, 2005

PRESIDENT AND FIRST LADY

President George W. Bush and Laura Bush will speak exclusively to Barbara Walters in their first joint interview since the November election. This will also be President Bush's first in-depth television interview since winning a second term as president.

Friday, January 21, 2005

GUARD TELLS ALL

Spc. Sabrina Harman, one of seven Army Reservists charged in the abuse of prisoners in Iraq's Abu Ghraib prison, told "20/20" she wishes she could apologize to the Iraqi people, but doesn't think she did anything wrong while she was stationed as a guard at the prison. She talks about what she saw at the prison.

LATOYA JACKSON

As LaToya Jackson prepares to release a new album, she's first trying to clear the air about her past. In an exclusive interview with "20/20," she talks candidly about her 10-year marriage, and defends her brother Michael, whom she calls "misunderstood."

FREELOADING CELEBRITIES

Their lives are good. People flatter them. Their fans tell them they love them. They get adoration and money. So why aren't celebrities nicer to the "little" people?

Friday, January 28, 2005

LIES, MYTHS AND NASTY BEHAVIOR WITH JOHN STOSSEL

True or false: the price of gas is higher than ever... suburban sprawl is terrible... outsourcing kills American jobs... John Stossel continues his popular series of debunking such common beliefs and also tackles some bothersome behavior -- like pork barrel spending, people who litter and added charges on your phone bill -- on "20/20."

Friday, February 4, 2005

CAUGHT ON TAPE: Internet and Video are Terrorists Tools

The war on terror has been described as an unprecedented type of conflict -- a battle against groups unaffiliated with nations, groups armed with radical ideologies. And the video camera may be one of the most powerful weapons in the terrorists' arsenal.

CAUGHT ON TAPE: Big Brother Is Watching You

"20/20" looks at the power of cameras and how they're changing our everyday lives.

Friday, February 11, 2005

MICHAEL JACKSON

In an exclusive interview, actor Corey Feldman speaks out with surprising new claims about his relationship with Michael Jackson when Feldman was a child star and the two were friends. Feldman, who has stood by Jackson until now, tells why he is now coming forward with allegations about their friendship to ABC News' Martin Bashir.

Friday, February 18, 2005

MYTHS, TRUTHS AND LOOKING GOOD -- INSIDE AND OUT

"20/20" questions what really helps and what is hype when it comes to looking and feeling good, including whether or not moisturizers prevent wrinkles, eating late makes you fat or revenge is sweet.

Friday, February 25, 2005

25 STARS, 25 MOMENTS

Hosted by Walters, "20/20" kicks off Academy Award weekend with a look back at some of the most memorable moments from over 20 years of the annual Barbara Walters Oscar specials.

Friday, March 4, 2005

DOUBLE LIFE

He was known as "The Mall Rapist," and over five years James Perry committed dozens of sexual attacks against children and young women. He stalked girls, meticulously planning when and where to attack in strip malls and shopping centers around Madison, Wisconsin. ABC News' 20/20 tells the story of his victims and their courage, as they face their attacker. He was sentenced to more than 400 years in prison.

SKIN DEEP

We all know about racism, about whites discriminating against blacks. The prevalence of "colorism" -- black on black discrimination, is less known, but it's an open secret in the black community. John Stossel looks at "colorism" -- black-on-black discrimination based on light or dark skin tones.

Friday, March 11, 2005

WORLD'S STRONGEST BOY

Richard Sandrak -- known as Little Hercules -- was a star on the bodybuilding circuit. At 12, Richard is already a grizzled veteran. Richard became an instant celebrity -- appearing in magazines and on television. He endorsed a line of supplements and became the main attraction at bodybuilding events. The money began rolling in. On the outside, Richard seemed on top of the world. But in an interview with "20/20's" Bill Ritter, Richard describes the sad story of an isolated boy denied a childhood by a controlling and abusive father.

ART OR NOT?

Can you tell the difference between modern art and child's play? John Stossel found that a lot of people can't.
